

Please, do not allow private companies to slam down the VCR copy laws and intentions which we have now. We should have the right to "time displace" TV program by direct storage on a computer or media. The only crime would be to share certain material I suppose after removing the ad's, isn't that the real issue! Please do not change to a more restrictive law taking away citizens rights and making corporate America stronger than god....

MY